

Sweet Sounds From The Cub Scout Band

By Nancy Burns

A cub scout band, led by Mrs. Kathryn Fox, was the highlight of the Pack 38's Blue and Gold dinner held Sunday at the high school.

The boys entertained guests and parents with three patriotic songs: "Your Land is My Land, When the Saints go Marching In and America."

Members included: Ed Grafton, Noel Ripley, Pat Sheerin, Michael White, who played solo trumpet for

Also on the entertainment bill of fare was Creepy Crawley and Co., who demonstrated and explained about turtles, lizards, snakes and such. Those present were invited to wear a boa around their neck and many of stout hearted took the opportunity to do so.

Third World Society To Sponsor Fashion Show

The Third World Society will sponsor a fashion show at Cohasset High School auditorium Friday March 2, at 7:30 p.m. The show, which is being presented by members of the Cohasset METCO community, promises to be a timely and creative presentation.

There are three main types of clothing being exhibited in the fashion show: They include business clothes, casual and sports clothes, and lavish evening wear. Members of the Cohasset METCO community who have had a large role in planning for this event are:

Mrs. Thelma Burns, METCO coordinator in Cohasset; Cheryl Wilmoth, Third World club president; Carla Latson, Third World vice president; Jerome Turner, Third World treasurer; and Tracey Young, secretary of the Third World Club.

The Third World Society is an organization founded at Cohasset to sponsor social activities for and by Cohasset's METCO population. Currently there are 48 METCO students in the Cohasset School System.

Awards presented during the evening festivities were: service pins to all cub members indicating the years of participation; Den I-Bear badges to Richard Combs, Donald Mulligan, who also received his Wolf badge, John Scott, Bart Snyder and Tom Stevens; Den II - John Lanata, Bobcat, Billy Reed, Wolf, and Graig Martin, Wolf; Webelos-Ed Grafton, Noel Ripley and Pat Sheerin, all receiving the scientist pin and Webelos badge; Kevin Dunn, Webelos badge; and Michael White, scientist pin.

Financing of the dinner and an Aquarium trip planned for March was provided by sales of pen sets by cubs. Every cub sold at least four boxes. Highest selling dens were Den I, Den VII, Den III and Webelos, in that order.

Highest individual sales went to Webelos Kevin Dunn, who sold 24 boxes and received a jackknife as his reward. Supersalesmen were given a pen set for each 8 sets sold and include: Donald Mulligan, Tom Stevens, John Scott, Bart Snyder, Brendon Mulcahy, Chris Gray, Todd Fitzpatrick, George Sachen, Ray Rosano, Jim Gallagher, Adam Roma, Dennis Twofoot, Mark LeVange, Larry Desmond and Ed Grafton.

Kathy and Gary Stevens, leaders of Den I, won the Eagle Award for uniform inspection. Stevens and cubs in Den I made a candleholder which was lit by each boy as he received his rank.

Den IV presented opening flag ceremony.

Cubmaster is Jeff Forsdick and sitting with him at the head table were State Representative Mary Jeanette Murray and Mrs. Kathryn Fox.

The next Pack Committee meeting will be March 25 and the next Pack Meeting will be at 7 p.m., March 28, for the Pinewood Derby Race.
